What is diabetes?

What does this video show?

What do you know about diabetes?

Some people are unable to regulate their blood glucose levels because their pancreas does not produce enough insulin, or their cells do not respond to it properly. This is called diabetes.

Diabetes is a serious condition, but if it is carefully managed diabetics can live normal lives. There are two main types of diabetes – type 1 and type 2.