Heart Disease Worksheet
This worksheet accompanies Heart Disease.ppt

1. Label this simplified diagram of the circulatory system by crossing out the incorrect words from each statement.

2. Why is the heart called a double pump?

3. Give one feature of arteries that make them well adapted to their function.
4. Paul wants to investigate the causes of heart disease. He looks up statistics for five European countries and creates the graph below.

![Graph showing heart disease deaths per 100,000 people vs. % energy from saturated fats.]

a) Which country had the highest saturated fat intake?

b) What relationship does the graph suggest between saturated fat intake and heart disease?

c) Can this data be used to draw valid conclusions? Explain your answer.