Remembrance

Armistice Day is on 11 November and is also known as Remembrance Day. It marks the day World War One ended, at 11am on the 11th day of the 11th month, in 1918. This year marks 100 years since WW1 ended.

But Remembrance day does not just honour the sacrifice of those who gave their lives in that war. A two minute silence is held in memory of all service personnel who have given their lives to defend their country.

What can you do to honour their sacrifice?

- 1) Attend the Remembrance Sunday Parade that will meet on Stansfield Road in Todmorden at 10.30, which will then process to wreath laying in the park.
- 2) Wear a poppy/ badge from the Royal British Legion. The charity looks after serving and ex-servicemen, women and their dependants who are in need

You can buy poppies, rulers, badges and wristbands from the office.
